Yvette Cohen was born in Cairo, Egypt and raised in Paris and Montreal.

She received a BFA from Concordia University in Montreal. After moving to New York she continued her education attending classes at the Art Student's League, the School of Visual Arts and the Whitney seminars. For a year she worked in lithography at the Bob Blackburn Printmaking Workshop.

In 1983 she established Plum Graphics Inc., a greeting card company, recognized for its unique images and products. There she received several nominations and a Louie award for her work.

In 2004 she returned to the studio to pursue her fine art full time. She lives and works in New York City.
